The Word Wardrobe

Try It On!

COMPANION 01 | EXUBERANT & NONCHALANT

Five playful ways to explore, express and bring these words to life—on your own or with others.

01 TALK THE TALK

What do exuberant and nonchalant mean to you? Can a person be exuberant in one moment and nonchalant in the next? Describe a situation where both might happen. What might help you choose one attitude or the other?

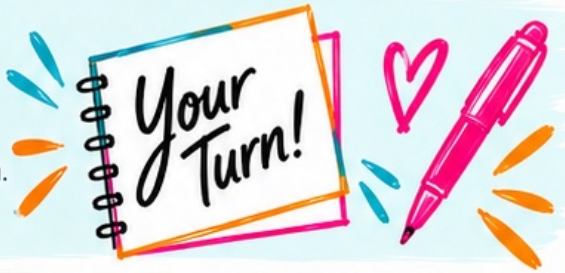

02 STRIKE A POSE

You're styling one outfit to feel exuberant and another to feel nonchalant for the same occasion. What would each wear? Describe or sketch your outfits. Give both an unexpected accessory.

03 MAKE IT YOURS

Exuberant and nonchalant are planning a fun day together. Write a two-line exchange between them. Make it witty, funny or unexpectedly thoughtful!

04 CLOSET RAID

Time for a fashion experiment! Using clothing and accessories you already own, put together one exuberant outfit and one nonchalant outfit. Try both on. Give each a runway walk and a signature pose. No purchases necessary.

05 LIGHTS, CAMERA, ATTITUDE!

Stage a 30-second scene featuring Exuberant and Nonchalant. Recruit a partner or play both roles. Use facial expressions, gestures, movement and props to bring their personalities to life. Perform it live or record your masterpiece.
