The Word Wardrobe

Try It On!

COMPANION 06 | WARY & NAIVE

Five playful ways to bring these words to life—solo or together.

01 TALK THE TALK

Someone offers you something that sounds almost too good to be true. Give two responses—one wary and one naive. Make both responses believable!

02 STRIKE A POSE

Imagine someone hands you a mysterious gift. Show us wary without saying a word. Now switch to naive. Use your face, posture and hands. Can someone guess which word you're portraying?

03 MAKE IT YOURS

Create two looks for the same occasion (like a party or a trip). One look says wary. One look says naive. Use clothes or sketch them. Add at least one unexpected accessory to each look!

04 MAKE A SCENE

Write or act out a short scene (30 seconds to 1 minute) where a character is wary at first, then becomes naive. What happens? How do their choices change the outcome?

05 SPOT THE DIFFERENCE

Read the situations on the sticky notes. Decide: Is a wary response warranted, or would it be naive to trust too quickly? Then add a twist that changes everything. Does your answer change?
